SALS Plan of Service 2022-2026

In 2022 SALS completed the first year of its 2022-2026 Plan of Service, developed by the SALS Board of Trustees and staff based on data collected annually from our member libraries. Member library staff and trustees identified the system services they needed in order to provide quality library services to their communities. The service priorities chosen by our membership, regardless of library size and budget were:

- Joint Automation/POLARIS support
- Delivery & Interlibrary Loan Services
- Consulting & Continuing Education
- Sharing E-Resources
- Advocacy
- Operational Support
- Collaboration with MVLS

The Southern Adirondack Library System (SALS) is at its best when we listen to and work with our member libraries to provide our communities with the best possible library services. The SALS Board of Trustees and leadership team embrace this perspective when strategically allocating resources and designing member services.

The SALS is a cooperative public library system located in Hamilton, Saratoga, Warren, and Washington Counties. We work in collaboration with our 34-member libraries. While our member libraries are a mix of urban, suburban, and rural, and range in size, staffing, and budget, each is committed to providing exemplary services to the people who reside in their communities.

When the pandemic precluded the possibility of hiring outside consultants to lead our strategic planning process, Erica Freudenberger used the Engaged Planning approach we encourage our member libraries to use when creating their community-responsive plans. We spent several months in conversation with various stakeholders – including the SALS Board of Trustees, trustees of member libraries, Friends of the Library, directors, staff, and volunteers, to create a member driven strategic plan.

We heard that the strength of our system is our open communication, our network of member libraries, and existing relationships. Our member libraries believe our collaborative relationship provides cohesion in times of turmoil, allowing us to leverage our strengths across the system so that we can sparkle for our communities.

We are committed to learning and growing. That process includes holding ourselves accountable by evaluating these core services each year. We value regular feedback from our membership and will revise our services as determined through the evaluation process.

Thank you to the SALS Board of Trustees, member library boards, staff, and volunteers, and the outstanding SALS and JA staff for all of their work.

About Libraries Today

The State of America's Libraries 2023: A Report from the American Library Association released in April 2023, finds libraries at the epicenter of discussions about our communities' well-being and democracy.

There's More to the Story ALA President Lessa Kanani'opua Pelayo-Lozada

"2022 was a year of continued change: The global COVID-19 pandemic entered its third year; book bans across the U.S. surged beyond numbers recorded over the last two decades; political, economic, and digital divides grew. But despite these upheavals, libraries thrived— specifically because they addressed these and many other challenges, while pivoting to offer new and updated services to their communities. Adaptation and innovation shined in 2022, proving that there truly is 'more to the story' at libraries.

As trusted institutions, libraries are the last bastion of democracy that is truly inclusive and free."

The results of the report demonstrate that libraries serve communities by:

- Defending the First Amendment rights of readers of all ages
- Ensuring everyone is able to use and access the library's resources
- Providing free access to the internet for telehealth, job applications, filing taxes
- Helping community members start small businesses, record podcasts, and earn high school diplomas
- Being trusted institutions

Despite being on the front lines of the culture wars, our member libraries continue to innovate and inspire their communities daily through sustainable composting, sharing food, creating seed libraries, installing Narcan boxes, or story walks. Our work – building broad and deep partnerships, advocating for digital equity and literacy, convening conversations about civic issues, and encouraging our communities to remain curious and explore a world of ideas – is essential.

2022 Library Programs of the Year

The Crandall Public Library – “An Evening with George Takei”: The Crandall Public Library hosted an “Evening with George Takei. This large-scale program spread awareness of the library through media attention, engaged an audience of first-time attendees of a library program and the content focused on social justice and diversity. Mr. Takei spoke for about his family’s time in three different Japanese-American internment camps during World War II. Library director, Kathy Naftaly then facilitated a question and answer after the program. Almost 1,000 people, representing different socio-economic classes, reporters, student, educators, Asian-Americans, members of the LGBTQ+ community, Trekkies, WW2 buffs among others attended the program. An attendee wrote: “Mr. Takei represents perfectly the library’s goal of expanding our community exposure to diversity and tolerance.”

Mechanicville District Public Library – “Concerts in Tallmadge Park:” The goal of this program was to bring back some fun and togetherness in the community after the COVID restrictions. Local bands performing different styles of music in five concerts held on Tuesday evenings. The goal was to have fun and as a result, the library experienced an increase in the number of library card applicants, summer reading participation, and an opportunity to promote library services like Overdrive, Kanopy and Hoopla. The library showed the community how to lead together for the better. Working together we can all succeed and make a positive impact for everyone. For you cannot have a community if you do not have unity.

Crandall Public Library: 2022 Central Library Report

Although the COVID-19 pandemic was not declared officially over, our Central Library operations resumed full-force in 2022. Fortunately, for our consortia colleagues and patrons, Crandall Public Library was able to provide our communities with access to eContent and expert material retrieval (ILL) in addition to our tax-supported operations. The Library received $180,787 directly from Central Library Services Aid money.

The money allowed the Library to provide eligible materials and resources in a myriad of formats to SALS member libraries in Hamilton, Saratoga, Warren, and Washington counties. The following statements demonstrate our reach and effectiveness in 2022:

- Central Library monies provide access to eResources such as OverDrive and Ancestry.com/Heritage Quest Online for all SALS cardholders. The use of electronic content reached an all-time record, 136,451 uses.
- In-house and WiFi penetration into City Park and roadside connections supported 17,183 unique clients.
- Total electronic materials additions to: 66,328.
- 37,543 interlibrary loan items were provided (loaned) from the Central Library

State financing for Central Libraries falls under NYS Education Law 273. In late 2021, the law changed to combine the former Central Library Book Aid (CBA) and Central Library Development Aid (CLDA) programs into a streamlined, flexible program called Central Library Services Aid (CLSA). CLSA funds are intended to adhere to the current provisions of Commissioner's Regulation CR 90.4 Standards for Central Libraries. In December 2021 and continuing into 2022 Lauren T. Moore, NYS State Librarian, appointed a joint New York State Library, Public Library System Directors Organization (PULISDO) and Central Library Directors Association (CLDA) committee to develop proposed amendments to CR 90.4 submission to the Board of Regents in late 2022. There were multiple opportunities for input and updates. The new standards were vetted and accepted in the first quarter of 2023.

We would not succeed if we did not have the unfettered support of Sara Dallas, Director of SALS, and her staff, the SALS Board of Trustees, and the Joint Automation experts. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, the Library staff, and the Friends of the Library, once again, it is our great fortune to work with SALS and member libraries.

Kathleen U. Naftaly, Director

Staff and Trustees

During 2022, we fulfilled our mission to improve and expand library services through the dedicated work of the Board of Trustees, SALS staff and our Central Library, Crandall Public Library in Glens Falls.
